

Press Release

Information Sought In Fatal Accident

The Fauquier County Sheriff's Office is asking for help identifying a pick-up truck and horse trailer in an on-going investigation into a fatal motorcycle accident on March 11, 2012.

The accident occurred at approximately 4:30 PM Sunday, March 11th, on Blantyre Rd at Trapp Branch Rd just south of Rt 55 in Fauquier County.

Matthew Mark Kish, 37, of Ashburn, VA was killed when his motorcycle left the right shoulder of Blantyre Rd and struck a tree. Kish was pronounced dead at the scene.

Witnesses describe a dark color newer model pick-up truck towing a silver in color horse trailer on Blantyre Rd at the time of the accident. A motorcycle rider travelling in front of Kish described this vehicle entering the curve on Blantyre Rd at Trapp Branch Rd and crossing the center line into on-coming traffic causing the motorcycles to swerve to the outside of the travel lane.

This vehicle was captured on sheriff's deputy's in-car cameras while enroute to the accident, the vehicle description was unknown until later and a lookout was broadcast. The truck/trailer was last seen travelling Rt 17 south toward Warrenton.

Anyone with information is encouraged to contact Fauquier County Crime Solvers at 540-349-1000 or the Fauquier County Sheriff's Office at 540-347-3300.
